Who We Are

The Youth for Jesus Conference (FJK) is a youth-initiated and-led movement of Seventh-day Adventists. It began in 2010 inspired by GYC (Generation of Youth for Christ¹).

Our vision is to uphold the distinctive message of the Seventh-day Adventist Church; to aspire to excellence in all aspects of their lives – academic, professional, and spiritual; to embrace the call to radical discipleship, including a life of missionary service; and to be supportive and respectful of denominational leadership while remaining a youth-led movement.

Mission

There exists, today, an army of dedicated young people within the Seventh-day Adventist church who yearn to demonstrate Nehemiah's leadership, Daniel's integrity, Mary's humility, Paul's passion for evangelism, and Christ's love for God and humanity. It is the goal of GYC and its members to seek and galvanize such young people. We aim to mobilize existing youth and young adult ministries that are fully committed to the distinctive message and mission of the Adventist church towards the proclamation of the Three Angels' Messages.

Purpose

The Youth for Jesus Conference seeks to equip and inspire young people to be Christian ambassadors to their respective places of work and study by

- Providing Biblical training in the form of participatory workshops, Bible studies, and inspirational messages at its annual conference.
- Fostering and encouraging Christian fellowship among young people from diverse socioeconomic statuses, educational degrees, geographical locations, and racial/ethnic backgrounds.
- Creating network opportunities for Adventist young people and youth-oriented ministries.
- Encouraging young people to assume leadership responsibilities in the Seventh-day Adventist Church by employing their experience and talents in planning and presenting the annual conference and other events.

¹ GYC began in 2002 as a movement of a small group of college students – the result of a hungering for the Word of God, deeper relationship with Christ and an active life in His service. United in a common commitment to serious Bible study, intense prayer, uncompromising lifestyle, and boldness in sharing Christ with others.

Behavior of all attendants must be consistent with the principles of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and the Spirit of FJK.

Reverence should be maintained in the meetings. Accordingly, please be punctual and conduct yourself appropriately at each meeting and seminar. In addition, we urge attendees to replace applause with vocal affirmations, such as “Amen”.

Attire should reflect the professional nature of the conference. Please respect the principles of Christian modesty and simplicity.

Name tags must be worn at all times in order to gain entrance to the seminars and general meetings. (With the exception of Sabbath programming, which will be open to the public.)

Meal

The ordered meals are shown on the registration card.

(“Meals=Étkezés; SzV=Wednesday dinner; CsE: Thursday lunch; CsV: Thursday; ...”)

Comfort and convenience are not the primary objectives of this conference, due to its intense nature. However, should you have any suggestions or special requests, please direct these to the appropriate FJK personnel.

In seeking to uphold the distinctive message of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, FJK will promote among its participants:

A respect for Scripture

as the foundation and test of all teachings and practices.

An appreciation for the Spirit of Prophecy

as an authoritative source of instruction, comfort, and warning.

A quest for Biblical holiness through a daily prayer and devotional experience with Jesus and a commitment to following His Word.

A vibrant worship experience

one that is characterized by principle, reverence, and decorum.

A passion for lost

souls animated by personal experience in the saving love of Jesus and a desire for His imminent return.

A cultivation of godly relationships preserving purity and encouraging accountability.

An exemplary and abundant lifestyle in recreation, entertainment, dress, and healthful living.

An enthusiasm for service through care for the needy, service to the community, promotion of human rights, and stewardship of the environment.

A commitment to the Seventh-day Adventist Church

as God's remnant church by supporting and upholding its principles, organization, and leadership.

An attitude of humility and cordiality

as we seek to clarify, articulate, and defend the Biblical teachings of the Seventh-day Adventist church.

László Szabó

Pastor

I'd had a precise plan for my life, but something came up. He spoke to me. Who, I had thought to be mute. I was mainly into technology, but God took three letters out, turning me toward greater secrets: theology. The questions of life and its miracles made me curious. I never wanted to be a pastor, yet today it is so close to me, and I am even teaching it. I used to avoid to speak about God, but nowadays I hardly do anything else. I didn't want to learn any foreign languages, and today I sometimes switch from one to another in a minute. It goes according to the international environment. This is the everyday reality, which I work in. Yet the changes and surprises are not over in my life. There are some, what I really enjoy, for example to make a Masai child smile in Tanzania. And there are some I don't like that much, for example how our Church looks like in our society. At present I work as a teacher at Friedensau Adventist University and I am also the head of the only european adventist missionary institute (ADIMIS).

Neville Neveling

MCSSA, Cell phone evangelist

Neville has been living in Namibia for the last 31 years. He is married to Reinet and has two sons Ewan and Simon. The youngest – Simon is married to Jenny, a British citizen and they have 4 daughters.

Neville was involved in IT for 12 years dealing with the development of relational data bases.

In 1983 he continued his Theology studies with Andrews University through Helderberg College in Somerset West, South Africa. During this time he was published several times in the "Ostraka" – a Theology Faculty publication produced by Dr. Isak van Zyl. He also pastored the Strand Church during this time and planted the church in Stellenbosch, South Africa together with Dr. Isak van Zyl.

In 1987 he accepted an offer to work for the Religious Department of the South West African Broadcasting Corporation in Windhoek, Namibia. This later became the Namibian Broadcasting Company.

He actively worked to promote the message of the Blessed Hope to this vast country. He has also been involved in the church and especially with Evangelism as that is one of his favourite activities.

Since 2017 he has been involved with Total Member Involvement (TMI) and developed a communications program to reach people on their cellphones. Because of this development, he now works for AWR360/TMI at General Conference as the Global Evangelism Trainer.

Károly Csengei

Food Production Engineer, Lifestyle Counselor

Food Production Engineer, devoted to the promotion of a healthy lifestyle. In his presentations, he uses plain and practical methods to introduce a self-conscious way of living. For 20 years he has been presenting and giving practical instruction on what we can do for our health.

He presents the theory, as well as the practice, of educating the healthy, eliminating risk factors and living a healthy life in order to easily and naturally prevent pathological conditions that might become serious long term. On his vegan cooking courses he shows how to use different substitutes while still maintaining recipes for rich, tasty meals.

In the case of already established problems we show alternatives that effectively help in the restoration of the body. We also support people with health problems in keeping their diet in the long run, so that this new way of eating can successfully integrate into their lifestyle. We give customised diet and lifestyle advices to stop the deterioration of the body and, if possible, to regain health.

Alex Browne

Alex Browne is a Civil Servant, who currently lives, works and worships in London. She spends most of her time finding excuses to be by the sea and trying not to buy more books.

OUTREACH MISSION ACTIVITIES

Visit to a children's home

You can bring light to the lives of children by spending time with them, and you can experience the love of God through children!

Among other things, we will play and talk with them.

Singing at a Elderly home

Praise the Lord with singing and make the elderly happy by this!

Leave letters

Tell people that God values them!

You can write letters to encourage them and to show them that God values them! Furthermore we will give free books while telling our own experience with those books.

Leave stones

Experience how the stones could talk about Jesus.

You can leave rocks with Bible verses all around the city and experience what it would be like for stones to talk about Jesus!

We will also give leaflets throughout the city inviting those who are interested in the programs of Eden's Valley Lifestyle Centre. Their main topic will be Climate Change.

LOOK FOR US

There are different working groups in our small team to ensure that no area is neglected and to give you the fullest answers to your questions.

So...

... if you need information about the program, look for Adam Ócsai,

... if you haven't been able to decide where to go on Friday, or if you simply want to know more about the mission opportunities, feel free to ask Vili Farkas,

... if you have any question connected with registration or sponsorship packages, look for Borcsa Csirkés,

... if you have any question about food or dietary requirements, Anita Frisala can answer them,

... if you take pictures on FJK and you would like to share with us, or you would like to receive pictures, audio, feel free to ask Bence Hites,

... if you would like to apply as a volunteer or you are interested in the FJK service, look for any of us, we will be happy to answer and welcome you in the team. :)

Not everything what's being sold is healthy

Károly Csengei / Thursday morning

Nowadays there are more damaging factors, both in and outside. Harmful strains are way greater now than previously. Some of them can be cut out, some of them can be compensated. THE GOSPEL OF HEALTH: "New Life" can begin at any time. You can start changing your attitude, when you get aware that your choice about food is a choice about energy, the Earth and water as well.

How can I concentrate better on my exams? (interactive, cooking and sampling)

Csengei Károly / csütörtök délután

More effective problem solving, better memory, ability of longer attention, more fluent speaking, better behaviour, more quality school performance? Not impossible if we truly want it and actually make the changes to do it. How can we enhance our endurance?

What do we gain from reprogramming our habits?

(interactive, cooking and sampling)

Károly Csengei / Thursday afternoon

From thoughts to "New Eden". Fundamental condition of change: acknowledging and accepting the flaws of my lifestyle, that not getting rid of the inappropriate habits makes me get sick, that I need counselling. Thoughts, acts, good habits, progress of health, change of approach, altering of character.

What opportunities does climate change give us?

Károly Csengei / Friday morning

Feeding 10 billions of people is possible only if we change the way we produce and consume food. "Going green of food sector or devouring of the planet: this is on menu today." We also can participate on creating a more sustainable world which our children can enjoy, too.

How can I be a responsive and observant listener?

Károly Csengei / Friday morning

The Lords wants his servants to grab the medical mission, making connection with people, warming their hearts by easing their distress. While you relieve sufferings, doors open for opportunities to talk about the love of Jesus.

How can I be twice as effective in mission?

Károly Csengei / Saturday afternoon

God's remedies open the doors in front of the relevant truths. Day to day acts speak more than a stream of words. Kindness, delicacy, gentleness, Christian goodwill, patience and love will dissolve prejudice and open the hearts to receive the truth.

Only One: The Lonely Adventist?

Alex Browne

There are around 5,223 Adventists in Hungary. That's 1 for every for every 1868 people. This means you're probably the only Seventh-day Adventist in your school, university or chosen career. That can feel lonely. You might also be the only young person in your church. That can be lonely too. Through the lens of the story of Elijah, we'll ask the question whether being the 'only one' is a normal part of the Christian experience and, if so, what we can do about it.

Salt and Light: Does Evangelism have to be weird?

Alex Browne

Adventists are a peculiar people, there's no getting away from it. And by peculiar, I mean a Saturday-resting-healthy-eating-prophecy loving people, who read a lot of a 19th century female author called Ellen. But just because we're peculiar doesn't mean our evangelism has to be too. This seminar will focus on how talking to our friends about Jesus can be as normal as having a conversation about the news and how we can be 'salt and light' (Matthew 5:13-16) right where we are.

Church: What's the Point?

Alex Browne

Nowadays, church can feel irrelevant. Stand up, sit down, read, sing, listen (and possibly fall asleep). Is it even worth going when you can watch something better online from the comfort of your bed anyway? This seminar will look at Paul's cosmic vision for the church in Ephesians and some practical tips for when the reality doesn't look quite like the ideal.

Leadership training

Tímea Matlák, Levente Bodnár, László Szabó

Do you feel every now and then like the world is falling apart? There is a lack of effective Christian leaders who have a good influence on others in non-Christian circles. This seminar seeks to answer the question of how to become an effective leader and multiplier who builds the community in their own environment and establishes Christian groups. Eating, talking and walking? - even the most common activities can be effective missionary tools. How? You will get an answer at this seminar!

Cellphone Mission

Neville Neveling

Have you ever counted before how many people do you see with smartphones in their hands? Have you ever imagined how wonderful it would be to use these smartphones in spreading the Gospel? If you are interested in a really efficient method of using this devices, then come to the seminar of Neville Neveling. Great ideas are granted, wich will not only change your life, but many others' as well.

In every year, there is a tremendous amount of work behind the scenes at every joyful FJK that would not be possible if we had worked alone. We are grateful to all our volunteers, who have spared your time, energy, enthusiasm, persistence, and given your best abilities for organizing and managing the conference year after year. It is a privilege to experience the amazing power of the community and collaboration. All your various personalities add to the team, whether it is about discussions, simpler tasks or very serious challenges. And we are grateful to our Father who complemented and blessed our human efforts and in the end He always flattens out the paths that may appeared curved.

Volunteers

while you may not be mentioned in name, your dedication and contributions are no less valued. Thank you for your effort and sacrifice!

When we look around, we face constant rush, with ever-increasing problems and struggles - both in our own lives and those of our loved ones or even in the world. "I wish I could help! It would be so good to find a solution!" We sigh while we have always had the key to change: prayer. The Bible and we at FJK want to encourage you to use this incredible tool. Say prayers for others, ask big, or even ask for something completely new from God and to see the miracle!
