„To everyone who becomes a partaker of His grace the Lord appoints a work for others. Individually we are to stand in our lot and place, saying, “Here am I; send me.” Isaiah 6:8. Upon the minister of the word, the missionary nurse, the Christian physician, the individual Christian, whether he be merchant or farmer, professional man or mechanic—the responsibility rests upon all. It is our work to reveal to men the gospel of their salvation. Every enterprise in which we engage should be a means to this end.”

/ Ministry of healing, p. 148.2./

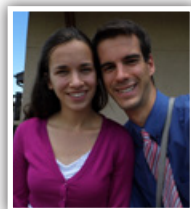

Whatever we do, wherever we go, we are in mission. The Lord calls us, saying: „Whom shall I send, And who will go for Us?” (Isaiah 6:8) „The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few.” (Matthew 9:37) As Ellen White says, the responsibility rests upon all. The Lord has a special plan for all of us. People are waiting for the gospel to be preached and lived through people. Will we take this responsibility?

I hope that this conference will help us to revive us for this mission. I hope that it will help us to know more about how to testify in our everyday lives the love of Jesus and the wonderful hope of the three angel's messages. And I hope that this knowledge will help us also to move into action, to consecrate us even more to Jesus for this purpose.

„He who loves Christ the most will do the greatest amount of good. There is no limit to the usefulness of one who, by putting self aside, makes room for the working of the Holy Spirit upon his heart, and lives a life wholly consecrated to God.”

/Desire of Ages, p. 250.4/

We have a purpose, we have a call, we are in mission!

Enikő Szöllősi
president of FJK

Behavior of all attendants must be consistent with the principles of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and the Spirit of FJK .

Reverence should be maintained in the meetings. Accordingly, please be punctual and conduct yourself appropriately at each meeting and seminar. In addition, we urge attendees to replace applause with vocal affirmations, such as "Amen".

Attire should reflect the professional nature of the conference. Please respect the principles of Christian modesty and simplicity.

Name tags must be worn at all times in order to gain entrance to the seminars and general meetings. (With the exception of the evenings and Sabbath programme, which will be open to the public.)

Name tags are also required for entrance into every meal. All meals offered are lacto-ovo vegetarian with optional vegan orders.

Comfort and convenience are not the primary objectives of this conference, due to its intense nature. However, should you have any suggestions or special requests, please direct these to the appropriate FJK personnel.

In seeking to uphold the distinctive message of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, FJK will promote among its participants:

A respect for Scripture

as the foundation and test of all teachings and practices.

An appreciation for the Spirit of Prophecy as an authoritative source of instruction, comfort, and warning.

A quest for Biblical holiness through a daily prayer and devotional experience with Jesus and a commitment to following His Word.

A vibrant worship experience

one that is characterized by principle, reverence, and decorum.

A passion for lost souls animated by personal experience in the saving love of Jesus and a desire for His imminent return.

A cultivation of godly relationships preserving purity and encouraging accountability.

An exemplary and abundant lifestyle in recreation, entertainment, dress, and healthful living.

An enthusiasm for service through care for the needy, service to the community, promotion of human rights, and stewardship of the environment.

A commitment to the Seventh-day Adventist Church as God's remnant church by supporting and upholding its principles, organization, and leadership.

An attitude of humility and cordiality

as we seek to clarify, articulate, and defend the Biblical teachings of the Seventh-day Adventist church.

Bible Answers Live! – Doug Batchelor

Have you ever faced Bible Questions you could not answer? Are there questions in your life your life that you would like to get answered solely from the Bible?

Doug Batchelor, host of the Bible Answers Live! - programme is visiting Hungary for the first time! You can ask your questions, come and seek the Bible's true answer together.

1. The greatest want of this generation and how this involves the youth of the Seventh-day Adventist movement - Jan-Harry Cabungcal

1. Do we live in a world in need of more young men of great intelligence and sophistication? What is the greatest want and need of this generation? How can the youth of the SDA movement be the catalyst and the element needed in this last generation? Can we be the generation that ends the world? These are the questions that we will tackle during this workshop and provide practical applications on reaching higher than highest human thoughts can reach - this is God's ideal for His children.

2. At the foot of the cross: Gaining Decisions

2. The Bible teaches that we are not only hearers of the word of God but doers. Yet so often, after we share a critical truth with a friend or family member, no decision is made. How can we cooperate with the Holy Spirit in such a way as to gain decisions from many a soul in the valley of decision? How do we make our appeals with power, conviction and confidence? Come and learn how to bring people to the feet of Jesus, and allow the power of the cross for the individual to choose an unhindered life in these last days.

Freedom in Christ - "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." (John 8:36) - Csizmadia Róbert

Redemption does not only provide a possible access to eternal life but it has an impact on our present life as well. This life-experience can be summarised in the phrase "Freedom in Christ". We are going to explore and examine together this topic with the help of the Bible. How can we characterise this freedom? Being free from something or free to do something? Freedom with boundaries or unrestricted freedom? Or are these the right questions to ask at all?

„Jesus for the youth.” How to find and keep the youth living in the 21st century with the gospel? - Dankó Ferenc

Without generalizing, anyone who tried to lead young people to God have experienced, that youth work is a great challenge, whether the target group are youth who go to church or those, who live in the world. In the seminars, we try to find an answer to how can we give the gospel to the youth of our generation in a way that they can understand and live by it. What general and specific traits does the work for this generation's youth have or can have?

Time travelling – is it possible? - Tóth Szilárd

In our fast-paced world, in the midst of the rush all of us feel that we need a pause. But when, where and how? Let's have a look at the Biblical chronology and feasts! Let's get acquainted with their origins and significance! Let's talk about what keeping the Sabbath means for us and what we can do to make this day a real feast!

GLOW - sermon in your pocket. In mission every day. - Szöllősi Enikő, Anna Müller

God is calling us to be His missionaries, and bring the light to the world, to others - what He has given us. There are many mission methods, but there is one that you can use in almost every situation.

How can such small things set big local churches on fire?

How can you gain experiences that you only dreamt of?

Come and be part of the GLOW story.

Church organization - on earth as it is in heaven...?

Erdődi Péter - Ócsai Imre

What is the church? Who has invented the organization and what is its „raison d'être”? Do I really need this anyway? Isn't it sufficient to be connected to Christ only? Does it have anything to do with my salvation? Can we find the everlasting Gospel in the Seventh-day Adventist doctrine of the church?

If you have ever asked any of these questions above then you are welcome to our interactive seminar, where we'll find answers together from the Bible and the Spirit of Prophecy, that „the manifold wisdom of God might be known through the church” (Eph 3:10).

From addiction to mercy - Horváth Gábor

I am convinced that there are two types of people. One group consists of addicts, the other group consists of those, who deny it. In my opinion, addiction goes together with existence, and through our bondages can we get to the state when we realise that we need a Saviour. I would like to share this process, my personal experiences and the realizations of my service among addicts, and I will also talk about what we can do for others in our environment.

The covered topics of the seminar will be:

1. Addiction as our universal human state
- or what does my life depend on, and what kind of everyday traps should I avoid?
2. The process of the addiction's development in the life of all of us.
- or how can I offset my tension and injuries as a child, an adolescent and an adult?
3. Addiction's appearance and fulfilment through the pages of the Bible Sad and uplifting examples from the Word of God about the destruction of sin and the power of grace. How can I break free from my addictions?
4. Religious addiction vs. Freedom earned in Christ

How can I live continuously my sobriety and why is it essential to pass on what I have received?

1. Where is my place, what is my duty? Mission or struggling in the net of youth? (1Jn 2,14) - Szabó Attila Destruction or building? The pitfalls of a successful life based on the novel 'A Colobre' by Dino Buzatti. If everything seems beautiful from the outside, what is the problem eventually? Why do you live and what are you running from? What does your life talk about: Jesus, or Colombre? Pictures of God and distortions of them.

2. What is the secret of a spiritual life? How will the tree of your life become fruitful? (Jer 17,5-6)

Jesus wants to plant you from the desert next to the river. How can it happen? Where do the invisible roots and branches of your life reach? The secret of growing your root hairs in the direction of the river. What is the bole? Your flowers: the smell of life or the smell of death? Change from the roots - bearing fruits. „My roots will reach to the water, and the dew will lie all night on my branches.” (Job 29,19)

Doug Batchelor

pastor, evangelist, media missionary

Doug Batchelor is the president and speaker for Amazing Facts Ministries and the senior pastor of the Granite Bay, California Adventist Church. His biblical teaching programs can be seen daily on national television cable networks and globally by satellite. He also hosts Bible Answers Live call-in radio program for Bible questions heard every Sunday night across North America. He is the author of numerous articles and books. Doug is a man of vision and deep spirituality, yet his down-to-earth approach and spontaneous humor enable him to communicate with both Christian and secular audiences. He enjoys flying, scuba diving, riding quads and playing guitar. He and his wife, Karen have five children.

Jan-Harry Cabungcal

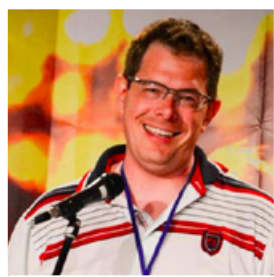

neuroscientist, mission-coordinator

Jan-Harry Cabungcal is a neuroscientist by profession, but soul-winning is his life passion. As the founder and evangelism coordinator of Europe 4 Jesus and president-elect of ASI Switzerland, Dr. Cabungcal works to inspire, equip and mobilize young people in seeking the lost, reviving the weary and pointing them to his Lord - Jesus Christ.

Róbert Csizmadia

pastor, theologian

Róbert Csizmadia, pastor theologian.

He obtained his MA degree in Theological Studies at Newbold College, England; he also studied there pastoral care and relationship counselling. In addition, he was the Assistant Dean of Newbold College. He is the co-founder of the Ketten Együtt Házassági Műhely (Marital and Premarital Counselling). He worked as a lecturer at the Adventist Theological Seminary, the Janus Pannonius University of Pécs and the Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary. He is happily married: his wife, Heli is from Finland, they have two daughters: Aino and Helmi. He works as a pastor of the SDA church.

Gábor Horváth

pastor, music teacher

My name is Gábor Horváth. I come from a village called Nágocs, located in the Somogy county with my wife and two sons. My original profession is music teaching (percussion) but God led me to realize, that he called me to serve as a pastor to work more for others. I also worked as a youth department director, and also got trained in addiction consulting at Semmelweis University. Since then I regularly work among alcohol, drug and medicine addicts. Our residential rehabilitation program started in 2010, (find out more at www.alkoholbeteg.hu). In the last 10 years, I have visited many primary and secondary schools as well as camps, where I met with many young people in order to think together about the questions of addiction and breaking free. I serve as the pastor of Balatonlelle district since September 2015.

Ferenc Dankó

pastor

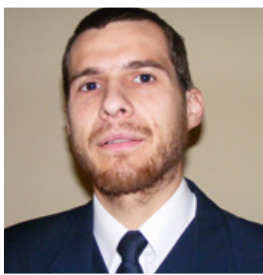

I have been serving as a pastor for seven years. In spite of the changes, in this period of time there was a constant emphasis on the youth work. In my commitment to this, my own way of life, personal experiences from my adulthood and youth had and have an important role. It is an inspiring challenge as a family man to stay young, make progress, and strengthen my faith at the same time. I have learnt the most from the youth about how faithfulness and credibility is equally important.

Szilárd Tóth

pastor

I am grateful to God that He called me when I was young to be a member of the family that is waiting for Him to come again; I have been serving Him as a pastor there for fifteen years. I have a special interest in the Old Testament and the Jewish culture. In my freetime, I like cycling and running.

Attila Szabó

pastor, mission worker, biology and arts teacher

I was born in 1956, and currently live in Győr. I was teaching all age groups as a biology and art teacher for twenty years. I got my second degree at the Sola Scriptura theological college in 1993, and from that time, I was teaching Bible and Fine arts class until 2014. Since 1996, I am working as a pastor and missionary in God's work. My wife, Zsuzsanna Horváth is also my coworker. I used to organize reading camps for young people (ages 14-20). Lately, in the past seven years we were organising scout camps for children (ages 7-14) with our coworkers. Also, in about the last 15 years, I was leading lifestyle camps. Since 1988, I am holding meetings and series mostly in western Hungary about topics like the Bible, healthy lifestyle, creation and evolution, child and youth rearing, and marriage care. I have summed up my researches and experiences in nine books. The goal of my work with the youth is to strengthen the boys and girls in their mission and vocation, „That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace” (Psalms 144:12).

Imre Ócsai

pastor

I've been a Gospel worker for seven years. After my studies in Theology I've started to work at the Bible and Lifestyle Camp in Bózsza. Together with my wife and our four children we work for the church in Szolnok. I have spent most part of my life and ministry outside the Seventh-day Adventist Church. A recently discovered treasure from the Scripture and the Testimonies gave a new meaning, opened a new dimension for my ministry. New light shone upon well known truths before my eyes. These discoveries played a key role in my joining to the World Church. I hope that by sharing these I may help young people, who desire to work for Christ.

Péter Erdődi

software developer, lay Bible student

After his studies in IT, he studied Theology at the Sola Scriptura College. Together with his former classmates, his passion is Bible research, to understand and share the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Father of one currently, but soon of three children, together with his wife, Erika, they are members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Ráckeve.

Who We Are

The Youth for Jesus Conference (FJK) is a youth-initiated and-led movement of Seventh-day Adventists. It began in 2010 inspired by GYC (Generation of Youth for Christ¹).

Our vision is to uphold the distinctive message of the Seventh-day Adventist Church; to aspire to excellence in all aspects of their lives – academic, professional, and spiritual; to embrace the call to radical discipleship, including a life of missionary service; and to be supportive and respectful of denominational leadership while remaining a youth-led movement.

Mission

There exists, today, an army of dedicated young people within the Seventh-day Adventist church who yearn to demonstrate Nehemiah's leadership, Daniel's integrity, Mary's humility, Paul's passion for evangelism, and Christ's love for God and humanity. It is the goal of GYC and its members to seek and galvanize such young people. We aim to mobilize existing youth and young adult ministries that are fully committed to the distinctive message and mission of the Adventist church towards the proclamation of the Three Angels' Messages.

Purpose

The Youth for Jesus Conference seeks to equip and inspire young people to be Christian ambassadors to their respective places of work and study by

- Providing Biblical training in the form of participatory workshops, Bible studies, and inspirational messages at its annual conference.
- Fostering and encouraging Christian fellowship among young people from diverse socioeconomic statuses, educational degrees, geographical locations, and racial/ethnic backgrounds.
- Creating network opportunities for Adventist young people and youth-oriented ministries.
- Encouraging young people to assume leadership responsibilities in the Seventh-day Adventist Church by employing their experience and talents in planning and presenting the annual conference and other events.

¹ GYC began in 2002 as a movement of a small group of college students – the result of a hungering for the Word of God, deeper relationship with Christ and an active life in His service. United in a common commitment to serious Bible study, intense prayer, uncompromising lifestyle, and boldness in sharing Christ with others.

The Executive Committee is responsible for the overall operation of FJK. Volunteering their time, this committee is a diverse group of Adventist young people, including young professionals and university students, who are committed to the message and mission of the Seventh-day Adventist church.

Come, and register as soon as possible!

This year we are going to have YfJ for the 8th time in Hungary - and our goal remains the same: drawing people's attention to the soon coming of Jesus Christ. This programme is an excellent opportunity for every young person to try out doing mission work, gain friendships, and life long experiences with God.

Youth for Jesus - Hungary 2016

Without the dedication and commitment of countless volunteers, FJK would cease to exist. The effort involved in planning a yearly conference, as well as administration, maintaining the website, facilitating networking, developing resources, and coordinating evangelism requires much sacrifice. Thankfully, the Youth for Jesus Conference has been blessed with many excellent volunteers. Unfortunately, all names cannot be mentioned here due to lack of space. However, a few noteworthy individuals and organizations deserve mention.

Our Heavenly Father

"to Him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen."

ASI (Adventist-laymen's Services and Industries)

to ASI Hungary and ASI Europe for providing both financial and moral support and guidance.

GYC (Generation of Youth for Christ) executive committee for providing various resources, help in finding speakers and valuable mentorship.

Hungarian Union Conference

for spreading the good reputation of our conference.

Felfedezések Foundation

for providing various organizational help, printing promotional materials and spreading the good reputation of the conference.

REK (Hope Evangelism Centre)

for the equipment, audio and video recordings.

Rendesweb

for participating in the preparations of the conference.

Volunteers

while you may not be mentioned in name, your dedication and contributions are no less valued. Thank you for your effort and sacrifice!
